SIoux COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

HARRISON, NEBRASKA

October 22, 2018

The Sioux County Board of Commissioners met for a special meeting at the Sioux County Courthouse meeting room on October 22, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. with the following present: Commissioners Joshua Skavdahl, J. W. Geiser and Hal Downer. County Attorney Adam Edmund, County Clerk Michelle Zimmerman and County Treasurer Lacy Klein were also present. Reference was made to the Open Meeting Laws posted in the meeting room. Motion made by Geiser, seconded by Downer to approve the agenda. On roll call vote, Geiser, yes; Downer, yes; Skavdahl, yes. Motion carried. The pledge of allegiance recited. Hal Downer led the meeting in prayer.

Clerk Zimmerman explained a study that she had done concerning increases in expenditures over ten year's time. Discussion was held on the amount of money needed to get to December and borrowing money from the bank to cover those expenses. Borrowed money has to be paid back within the fiscal year. There is no line of credit for counties. Transferring money from the Inheritance Fund to the General Fund was also discussed.

Joe Falkenburg and Jodi Thomsen attended the meeting and asked questions concerning contracting some work out or contracting some services. Thomsen asked when cuts will be made and when those decisions will be made. Skavdahl replied that by December we will decide if we will cut an employee. Discussion was held on duties and requirements of the Road Superintendent and Road foreman.

Lacy Willey, Security First Bank and Josh Dunn, Sandhills Bank provided information concerning interest rates, documentation required and a timeline of processing a loan.

The auditor will be consulted regarding transferring unanticipated revenue from the Inheritance Fund to cover November claims.

There being no further business to come before the board, the meeting adjourned at 11:34 a.m.
